ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY

Academic integrity is a combination of values and skills that foster honesty, fairness and integrity in every student.

“Academic integrity” means to comply all the academic work excluding plagiarism, fabrication or falsification, copying, and deception.

1. The structure of the document of Academic Integrity Policy

- The purpose of the document
- Academic misconduct
- Violations and responsibilities
- Those who have responsibilities and roles
- Sources

2. The purpose of the document of Academic Integrity Policy

The purpose of the document is:

- to create an atmosphere of honesty and integrity
- to create a teaching and learning environment based on trust and reliability
- to create a teaching and learning environment that stimulates and encourages students to design individual work and to develop their own ideas respecting those of others.
- to promote honest behaviour stimulating the development of the attributes of the IB learner's profile.

3. Academic misconduct

By academic misconduct we mean:

- Plagiarism
- Deception
- Duplication or copying
- Cheating

4. Violations and responsibilities at the Primary School

In case of academic misconduct the following steps are implemented:

- The teacher conducts a conversation with the student (if necessary, also the parent) during which the roles and responsibilities contained in the policy are discussed.
- The student is given one more chance to work on the assignment. In this case, the first assignment is not assessed.
- The assessment results are reviewed.

5. Those who are responsible for the academic integrity

- The school
- Teachers
- Students
- Parents

5.1 The role of the school in providing Academic integrity is:

- To develop and establish principles of the policy of academic integrity
- To ensure that the Lyceum Community has access to the document and organize regular workshops for parents, students, and the staff.
- To highlight the role of the librarian in the process of formation of the academic integrity behaviour.

5.2. The role of the teacher in the provision of Academic integrity is:

- To participate and actively contribute to the development and revision of the document of academic integrity.
- To introduce the academic integrity policy to students.
- To instill IT skills and ensure that students have acquired them.
- To demonstrate behavior of academic integrity as well as its importance (provide the links of the images, texts, articles, etc, have a reference list in case of citing)
- Teach students to formulate and express their own ideas, to design their own work, and not to duplicate or copy from others.
- Be consistent and highlight not only the final result but also the whole learning process.

5.3. Parents' role in the provision of Academic integrity is:

- To be familiar with the policy of academic integrity.
- To demonstrate academic integrity and be consistent with the academic integrity policy that is applied at school.
- To encourage their children when they demonstrate the behavior and the rules of academic integrity.

5.4 .The Primary School students' role in the provision of academic integrity according to the age peculiarities.
